

Estimated School Readiness Indicator Availability for January 2013 by Geographic Level – Subject to Negotiation and Suppression for small values

	Indicator 1: Children demonstrating school readiness at kindergarten entry	Indicator 2: Children enrolled in 3-5 start early care programs	Indicator 3: Children with special needs/rights in 3-5 start early care programs	Indicator 4: Families that spend no more than 10% of income on 3-5 star early care programs	Indicator 5: Children with newly identified developmental delays during the kindergarten year	Indicator 6: Children entering kindergarten exiting preschool special education to regular education	Indicator 7: Children 2-4 at a healthy weight	Indicator 8: Children receiving at least six well-child visits within the first 15 months of life	Indicator 9: Children age 5 with untreated tooth decay	Indicator 10: Families who report they are competent and confident
Statewide data source – regional availability indicated below	Kindergarten Developmental inventory – in development	Quality First Data System	Quality First Data System	Quality First Data System and DES Market Rate Survey	In development	AZ Department of Education service data	Women, Infants, and Children – AZ Department of Health Services service data	AZ Health Care Cost Containment service data	AZ Department of Health Services Oral Health Survey	FTF Family and Community Survey
Navajo Nation	In development	FTF Region/DES Region	Suppressed – number of children reported is too low to report	FTF Region/DES Region	In development	*ADE, Tribal Data, *Bureau of Indian Education	*Inter-Tribal Council of Arizona, *Indian Health Service	*Inter-Tribal Council of Arizona, *Indian Health Service	*Department of Health Services, *Indian Health Service, *Inter-Tribal Council of Arizona	Not available – sample size is too low or data will not be available for January 2013

First Things First has data source. This will be based on Star Rating Release.

Data will be zip code specific.

*All data availability is subject to tribal approvals